PROSPECTUS.

(a) The recent remarkable developments in building in this Colony have resulted in a demand for labour and building materials that has been unprecedented. Increased costs, consequent upon such demand, necessitate the adoption, where possible, of means whereby not only may labour be saved but materials produced both quickly and economically. This Company is formed mainly for the purpose of providing plaster and gypsum products which are required in the construction of every building from the small house to the largest block of modern offices. "Simplex Plaster," which the Company proposes to manufacture in this Colony, is manufactured by a special process, and is at present only obtainable from abroad, and the Promoters are confident that it can be manufactured here and sold for a price considerably below that which the commodity commands in Hongkong at the present time. This plaster is now extensively used in building in this Colony, and is in fact, as experience has shown, extremely beneficial in the Far East and particularly in Hongkong, for it is impervious to white ants, does not chip owing to damp, and is practically fireproof, remaining unbroken and unaffected by heat unless of a temperature of 250 to 300 degrees centigrade.(b) The Company has acquired as a going concern that branch of the business of The China American Industrial Developing Company, Limited, which has been engaged in the manufacture of "Simplex Plaster." The purchase includes a piece of land of an approximate area of 41,000 square feet situate at Tsan Wan, together with the buildings, plant, machinery and equipment thereon, the machinery being already assembled for the commencement of manufacture. The purchase price will be paid and satisfied by the allotment to The China American Industrial Developing Company, Limited, of 15,000 shares of the Company credited as fully paid up.
Furthermore the agreement with the Vendors provides that the Vendors will place with the Company all further orders for the supply of plaster required by the Vendors.(c) The Contract for the acquisition of this business is dated the 4th day of January, 1924, and is made between The China American Industrial Developing Company, Limited, of the one part and Denis Henry Blake as Trustee for the Company of the other part. A copy of the Contract can be inspected at the Registered Office of the Company or at the office of the Company's Solicitors.(d) The minimum subscription on which the Directors may proceed to allotment is seven shares.(e) No commission or promotion money is being paid by the Company.(f) The Company will pay the preliminary expenses of and incidental to the formation and floating of the Company down to the time when it becomes entitled to commence business, and the estimated amount thereof is $5,000.00.(g) The Articles of Association provide that the qualification of a Director is to be the holding of 500 shares in the Company, and that the remuneration of each of the Directors is to be $600.00 per annum.(h) The Directors are interested in the promotion of the Company to the extent only that they or some of them are Directors of other companies with whom the Company may do business.(i) Copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company can be inspected at any time during business hours at the Registered Office of the Company or at the office of the Company's Solicitors.(j) A copy of the Company's Memorandum of Association is annexed to this Prospectus and forms part of it.(k) Application for shares should be made upon the Form attached to this Prospectus, and sent to the Company's Bankers together with a remittance of $2.50 per share, the amount of the deposit.(l) Where no allotment is made, the deposit will be returned in full, and where the number of shares allotted is less than the number applied for, a proportionate amount of the deposit will be returned.
(m) Prospectuses can be inspected at and Forms of Application obtained from the Company's Bankers, the International Banking Corporation, and also from the Registered Office of the Company.

increasing daily. Taking the cost in 1914 as an index figure, statistics for 100 commodities to-last year, and there seems no reason why this will not reach the previous high water mark of 370 which was attained at the end of 1916. The index figure for 20 commodities now stands at 333.

Coal which cost 65 francs a ton in have risen from 16 to 72 francs a pair.

RETURN OF SIMPLE,
TUNEFUL SONGS.

PANTOMIME MELODIES.

The return of simple, tuneful songs, the passing of syncopation and jazz, and the entry of "the blues" will mark the songs of this year's pantomimes, writes a theatrical correspondent.I consulted the pantomime experts of three music publishing firms. This is what they prophesied about the songs to be generally sung in the Christmas-time entertainments:Messrs. Francis, Day, and Hunter: Less wild, more placid and tuneful songs. Waltz-time should be popular again.
B. Feldman and Co.: We are getting back to more simple numbers. Jazz and syncopation are fading away.Laurence Wright Co.: "The blues" will be a feature of this season's pantomimes.A good example of the tuneful song with humour lurking in it which will be sung in many pantomimes is Mr. Melville Gideon's "I'm Ticked to death I'm Single."I'm tickled to death I'm single,
I'm tickled to death I'm free.
What are the wild wives saying?
Doesn't apply to me!
I'm frightfully ticked I'm single.I've seen the henpecked paters,
Looking like rag-time waiters,
Pushing perambulators—
They can't catch me!British lyrics and composers, it is agreed, are enjoying considerably greater popularity than they have for a good many years; but, on the other hand, a number of the songs which Miss Nora Bayes brought with her from America and recently sang with very great success are to figure in pantomime."I LOVE ME."
More than 100 comedians will, it is stated, sing a song called "I Love Me" in the pantomimes.One of the verses of this egotistical ditty runs:
I love me, I love me, my birthday's once a year,
I love me, I love me, and when my birthday's near.I go with me and buy myself some gifts to put away.
Then I surprise myself with them when me wakes up that day.I love me, I love me, I'll marry me some day.
Right away, Saturday, I'll give me all my pay.With me I like to make a date
To meet myself at half-past eight.If I'm not there I never wait—I'm wild about myself.Other songs which it is confidently asserted will help to brighten this Christmas are the "Choo-Choo Blues," the "Teddy Bear Blues," and the "Tomahawk Blues," "Dearest" and "He May be Your Man," "Tell Her I Stutter," a humorous song, both for men andwomen, a nigger song, "Sing along, Sambo," a duet concerning
"Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean," and an explanation of "Why Robinson Crusoe got the Blues."It seems that he "got the Blues" because he "lost all his frouseaux but his shoes" and "landed on the ice dressed up in a smile."
As usual, nearly all the songs for pantomime were sung into popularity at the seaside and elsewhere during the summer.

BOX PEACE PLAN.

WASHINGTON, January 9.
Attempts have been made to ascertain the views of President Coolidge on the Bok peace plan.
Inquiries referred to his message delivered at the opening of Congress, when he said that the country had definitely refused to ratify the Covenant of the League of ther in the Senate incident closed."This, apparently, means that neither the President nor the Republican members of the Senate will give encouragement to any plan that recognises, on the part of the United States, formal admission to the League of Nations.

THREE SPEECHES.

William Pean in his Fruits of Volitude remarks that the end of speech is to be understood. Having read carefully, word by word, the three speeches delivered at Wednesday's degree ceremony at the University we can say without hesitation that the speakers there achieved the most desirable end of being understood. The speeches though big in quantity are more so in quality and rank with some of the best we have read. Having in view the occasion of their delivery—the presentation of honorary degrees to those deemed worthy to receive them, and the element of stock-taking that we must expect from the head of a young University, it is to be expected that length must over be an accepted fact with regard to orations delivered on these very auspicious occasions. Apart from the speeches—and that they were very acceptable may be judged by the punctuation of them with bursts of applause by those who attended the ceremony—the degrees conferred upon Mr. Prece and Mr. A. W. Tso will give general satisfaction. Some may cavil at the delay which has taken place in conferring these honours, especially now that the extent of the services of these gentlemen to the University is made more generally known. Mere words are probably unavailing in conveying adequately what they have done. Mr. Tso's services have not been merely to the University. His association with the late Sir Dr. Kai Ho Kai is more than a tradition in the annals of public and disinterested service in Hongkong. It dates back to the years when the idea of a University was undreamt of; when the question of higher education amongst Chinese was a matter of no little optimism and courage, but attempted by idealists and assisted by idealists of the stamp of Mr. Tso. The Vice-Chancellor was exceedingly happy and truthful in his statement that Mr. Tso was a living example of the Chinese educated in England who had not lost his national characteristics. Of independence of thought, the recent interview with Mr. Tso more than confirms, whilst the speech he has left on record is a memorial to his earnestness, and his clear sighted manner in viewing things.

Mr. Prece gravely contends that he is not an "educated" man—only an engineer. He is evidently none the worse for that. An enthusiast obviously, a man who has found his work, is happy in it and is therefore counted among the blessed. The University seems to have been fortunate to the 11th degree in securing the services of men willing to advance its cause for the sheer love of doing so. Mr. Prece is a typical example. He adds to his many benefactions a speech that rings peculiarly true—peculiarly British—whose message is learn, learn, and again learn. We may well leave it at that.

The Vice-Chancellor's own song—for that is what it evidently is, we do not propose to examine in detail. It was worthy the man and worthy the occasion. Honest in purpose with no ambiguity in any of its parts, it ranks amongst the few great speeches which have been delivered here. Sir William Brunsynte has some small satisfaction in being able to hand over his charge with its lustre undimmed—may a little brighter we venture to think. The future still has its difficulties, but Sir William has worked in yeoman-like fashion to make them less formidable than they otherwise would be.

We trust that it will be deemed worthy to have the three speeches we have so briefly commented upon, published in pamphlet form. They should not be lost in the columns of newspapers or the archives of the Bousham Road establishment.

Why Not?

The showing of films at the Coronet Theatre depicting the training of Chinese Policemen, is on a par with the recent display of educational films—a piece of enterprise that must be commended and demonstrating anew the practical apart from its amusement side, of the cinema industry. It is capable of enlargement in many directions. One that we think of at the moment is in connection with the Education Dept., which, it is alleged is grappling with the question of understaffing. Teachers will not come we are told. Well then, have a film made of a teacher's life in Hongkong and sent home for display. There are difficulties in the way we admit. The trouble will be what to include and what to leave out. Unquestionably the first thing will be to show a teacher in receipt of his or her monthly cheque, with a close-up showing the qualified smile on the face of the teacher. Then a distant view of the Peak would be given to show what the would-be educationist could look forward to. Or failing this one of the house—with furniture, that a grateful and severely economic government provides for married teachers. By all means add views of Japan as the place where summer holidays can be spent and a view of the various Club houses which are to be found here, including the lounge of the Hotel and a view of the grill room, and of course Ippusa Bay. Other scenes could doubtless be included, and with the letter press—if that is what it is called—carefully worded, the supply of teachers would easily exceed the demand. There are at least two things that should be excluded from this proposed film; one is a view of the outside of the Saiyungpun School building, and the other is the Education Board in session with someone or other making a speech on education.

We wonder how many parents have had Christmas drummed into them.

They may be raising Queen's Road higher but we should like to point out that they are also raising our ire!

Captain Robert Dollar urges us to get a move on. He must have been taken along Queen's Road.

The rumour that the members of the Education Board have resigned is denied. They've not been educated to that step yet.

Some revellers we wot of, minding us of the High Cost of Low Living.

"It is not impossible," says The Evening News, "that Miss Megan Lloyd George will write a book upon her impressions of America." No, but it ought to be.

Should Married Men write to Former Sweethearts? Is the question put by a contemporary. You may take it from us that the answer is "Not if they give their home address."

Mr. Will Irwin, The British retained by Collier's magazine to direct a campaign for world peace through the columns of that periodical, made a study of the League of Nations. He found faults—many of them. He detected shortcomings and did not hesitate to enumerate them. But he concludes that, in regard to the League, if we Americans are to approach the subject with any spirit of truth, we must reorient ourselves. Call the League, as did its opponents in 1919, a dangerous superstate, aimed at the blood-bought independence of these United States, and you are talking passé nonsense. It has so far failed to perform any superfunctions.

"The fact remains, however, that the League is now the one bright spot in a mad and tortured Europe—the single political nucleus of sanity and good will. Weak it may be; yet every year since its foundation has seen it stronger. After only four years of existence, it is so firmly fixed in the international structure that if it did not exist, Europe would be obliged to create it."

E. A. Brooks, a wealthy FAITH. South Australian rancher, showed that he had the courage of his convictions regarding the future of Western Australia when he purchased recently close on 1,000,000 acres in the Murchison district. On his return from a trip through this State, he said that he was of the opinion that within another fifteen or twenty years it would be carrying more than 20,000,000 sheep and would be growing some of the best wool in Australia. From other indications, also, it would seem that Western Australia is looming large as an important factor in the future of the Commonwealth.

Son: She hasn't a relative on earth! Pa: (Grab her, my boy, grab her!)

THE GREAT MYSTERY. The greatest mystery of life is love. Who has not sought to sound its unexplored depths? Who has not felt its all-compelling power? Who has not surrendered to its irresistible force? Love is the dream of the poet, the puzzle of the philosopher, the theme of the novelist, and the song of the minstrel. Love links all the human rays. Its note of victory is heard in the royal court and in the peasant's cottage. It is the stimulus of parental affection in the home and of patriotism in the nation. Brave men die for it; and noble women perish that they may bear its sweet income with them to the grave. How sweet and tender is this splendid attribute of mankind! In its smiling presence, anger, bitterness and strife melt away. How much more has the world to hope for from love than from envy, malice and hatred.

To-day's Poem. (Dedication of the Gift of a Book to a Child.) Child, do not throw this book about! Refrain from the wholly pleasure Of cutting all the pictures out! Preserve it as your chief treasure.

Child, have you never heard it said That you are heir to all the ages? Why, then, your hands were never made To tear those beautiful thick pages!

Your little hands were made to take The better things and leave the worse ones. They also may be used to shake The Massive Paws of Elder Persons.

And when your prayers complete the day, Daring your little tiny hands Were also made, I think, to pray For men that lost their fairy hands.

MR. IRVING NOT RESIGNING.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S STATEMENT.

Interviewed by a China Mail representative regarding the reported impending retirement of the Hon. Mr. E. A. Irving, Director of Education, and the rumours concerning supposed successors, Sir Claude Severn, the Colonial Secretary, stated that Mr. Irving is not resigning. He is merely going home on leave in February. The question of his substitute is being discussed. Whether or not Mr. Irving will retire will be considered by the Government, but for official information at present, Mr. Irving is going on leave. Questions regarding possible changes in the status of the Education Board vis-a-vis the Director of Education do not therefore arise.

OUR TAXIS.

MANY MORE ON THE WAY OUT.

SPECIAL NEW ORDER.

Hongkong, the first Far Eastern city to have taxis, will soon have a very complete service of these handy vehicles, thanks to the enterprise of the Hongkong and Kowloon Taxicab Co., Ltd. Speaking to a China Mail man this morning, the General Manager, Mr. A. H. Rowe, mentioned that twenty taxis have left the factory this month. There are thirty coming out on the steamer "Porthos" next month. That will make eighty taxis for Hongkong and Kowloon. The new taxis have been specially constructed for Hongkong and when they arrive the present ones will be transferred to Kowloon.

As soon as the new taxis are in proper service a further order for forty more will be placed, giving Hongkong and Kowloon 120 altogether. Eighty was the original total fixed for the Colony, but the Company has decided to order the additional forty in consequence of the steadily increasing popularity of their service.

The jury found the prisoner guilty of armed robbery and the unlawful possession of arms, the Chief Justice imposing a sentence of 10 years' imprisonment on the first charge and seven years on the other, with twenty strokes of the "cat."

An entertainment which attracted a surprisingly good number considering the lack of publicity given to it, took place at the Theatre last night, when a group of citizens from the borders of Roumania gave a concert consisting of Russian and Serbian songs, and dances which were much appreciated. The performers invested their songs and dances with a considerable amount of vim despite the fact that they played to a "House" that brought them no financial profit.

RAGGER RAGGINGS.

(BY "SCRIMMAGE.")

My criticisms of the Interport were uncalculated and in extremely bad taste—moreover they were venomous. I was wanting in the fact that I did not say rude things to the selection committee. I display a lack of knowledge of the inner workings of the local Rugby world. My criticisms are disjointed and destructive. I am evidently new to my role and out of perspective in blame and praise, while the latter savours somewhat of fawning. In other words if I criticise anybody it is, venomous. (I have been looking through my previous "Disjointed and Destructive" and it seems to me that King is the man that should have sent me the cigars for Christmas.) Now you know my true character please don't read what I write. ("Moreover we did not ask to play")!!!!

The Club players appear to be taking a rest—healing the grazes I suppose. It is a bit difficult to keep matches going week after week with so few men coming forward who are eager to play. I say "eager" advisedly as the man who has to be pressed to play does not do a great amount to foster the game out here.

The Navy are going strong, with their mid-week matches. I had visions once of keeping track of their various players but their name is legion.

After Colonel Hill's speech at the Interport Dinner I have given up hopes of seeing the Army turn out a side. It is a pity—must be the first time for some years that it has happened.

In the absence of any information I surmise that there is to be no match on Saturday, neither is there any news as to when the Navy-Cup-cup will be played. I sincerely hope that there will not be a general slackening off now that the Interport is over. Remember Club that you started the season with a firm resolve to get that Cup this year. You have won the first leg and have got a wonderful chance. What about a little training now. Eh! what about it?

I had not meant to revert back to the Interport but I do hope that the Shanghai-Navy referee will get a new whistle before he officiates again. I forgot to say this last week. It was a plaintive sort of note, wasn't it?

The North of England sprang a surprise on Rugby followers when they defeated the South at Birkenhead Park by 24 points to 13, as also did France when they beat Scotland. One wonders what France are like this season. It would be a terrible shock to everybody's system if they won all their matches.

Before next Friday I hope to be in possession of more news regarding forthcoming local Rugger matches. Which brings my disjointed train of thought back to "Fed Up's" letter in which he accuses me of being ignorant of the inner workings of the local Rugby world. I am wondering if anybody knows much about it.

KOWLOON FLAT.

OWNER SUES OCCUPIER.
INTERESTING RENTS PROBLEM SOLVED.

Judgment was given in the Summary Court by the Puisse Judge (Mr. Justice Gompertz) to-day in the case which Mr. Robert Arthur Clarke, a clerk in the Naval Yard, was sued by Chan Shun-ze, owner of the flat at No. 33 Nathan Road where Mr. Clarke resides, for possession under the Rents Ordinance.

At the hearing last month the plaintiff was represented by Mr. M. M. Watson and Mr. F. G. Vaux appeared for the defence. Mr. Watson explained that the flat was originally let to a Mr. Bolderson. A week or two before the hearing judgment for possession was obtained against the latter on the ground that he had not paid his rent for several months. Mr. Clarke claimed to be sub-tenant of Bolderson but the plaintiff's contention was that Mr. Clarke was not a tenant but a caretaker and, alternatively, that if he was a tenant he was not protected at law by the Rents Ordinance. The tenancy of Bolderson having been determined the tenancy of the defendant was, Mr. Watson argued, ipso facto determined.

The defendant, in the witness box, said that he heard that the flat was vacant from a newspaper advertisement. He then got into touch with the tenant, Mr. Bolderson, with whom he arranged to take over the flat after buying the furniture and fittings for $400. When he went in on September 23 he made inquiries and was informed that the rent for September had not been paid. He then obtained a sum of $70 from Mr. Bolderson. When handing over the keys Mrs. Bolderson said her husband owed two months' rent, which he would send to the landlord.

The defendant asserted that he took over the flat only on the condition that he became a sub-tenant of Mr. Bolderson though he admitted, when questioned on the point by Mr. Watson, that his letter was "somewhat misleading." He had never, he said, paid any rent to Bolderson.

H. Honour's Decision.
In the course of his judgment this morning His Honour said it was impossible to support the view that Clarke was a caretaker. "It is absurd," the Puisse Judge proceeded to point out, "to say that a man who has made himself responsible for the full monthly rental and has paid a substantial sum for the furniture and fittings is a mere caretaker. Then has he the protection of the Rents Ordinance? If he has not it is clear that plaintiff is entitled to possession."

After discussing a number of legal authorities, including several which Mr. Watson had quoted during his argument, His Honour said that, generally speaking, the general object of the law was the protection of the man in actual occupation and in the case before him the defendant clearly was a tenant in actual occupation.
"No doubt, a very wary man," remarked the Judge in conclusion, "would not have concluded his bargain until he had seen the rent receipts. But there was nothing to put Clarke on inquiry; he trusted Bolderson, it is true—but so did the landlord, who allowed him to be four months in arrears with his rent. In my opinion—when the order for possession was made against Bolderson and he dropped out then Clarke's relation to the landlord became that of statutory tenant under the Ordinance. There must be judgment for the defendant with costs."

BANK MERGER.

MANAGERS INTERVIEWED.

The absorption of the Asia Banking Corporation by the International Banking Corporation briefly reported in to-day's papers, was confirmed by managers of both banks when seen by a China Mail representative this morning. An agreement has been reached, we understand, whereby the International Bank will take over all the assets and business of the Asia Banking Corporation which at the completion of the negotiations will cease to exist.

This merger, Mr. Hogg, the International Bank manager, told our representative, will be helpful to all American banking institutions in the Far East. Subsequent announcements will be made as to the business arrangement, he said.
The deal is subject to the approval of the stockholders and a special meeting has been called to expound the sale, after which further detailed information will be available.

Mr. D. M. Biggar, manager of the Asia Bank informed us that it is expected that the process of transition will be completed by Aug. 31 this year, when the International Bank will start on its new arrangement.

A Reuter message received to-day from Shanghai stated: "It is announced (by Shanghai) that the Asia Bank has decided to merge its assets and business with the International Bank."

YAU MATI SCHOOL.

DEVELOPMENT OF DISTRICT.

One of the popular features at the distribution of prizes at Yau Mat School this morning was the granting of a half-holiday to the students by Hon. Mr. E. Irving, Director of Education. Mrs. G. P. de Martin, wife of the former headmaster, was given a bouquet by the enthusiastic scholars after she had given out the prizes and in response, her request that the students be granted a holiday, was loudly cheered.

Father Valtorta, a member of the Board of Education was an interested visitor.
Mr. G. E. Edwards, the headmaster, in his annual report stated that the school was opened on 220 days during the year, the minimum enrolment was 271 and the average attendance 246. Last year the average was 260.

The attendance had been good, but there were still too many cases of boys being kept away from school on account of family affairs. It had only been possible to admit a few of the many boys who had applied for admission. The district was developing so rapidly that a school much larger than the existing one was needed.
The discipline had been excellent. The boys were well-mannered and easily controlled. The prefects rendered useful assistance in the maintenance of order.

The health of the school had been good, went on Mr. Edwards. As regards the studies, 234 boys took the Annual Examination in November and 210 passed. The results taken as a whole were good except in Class 7c. In this class 11 boys failed out of 25 presented, and of these 6 failed in English, 3 in Chinese and 2 in both English and Chinese.

At the Entrance Examination to Queen's College 12 boys passed out of 15 presented. The standard for a pass was raised from 60 to 70 per cent. The examination revealed weakness in Colloquial, Dictation and Composition, the results in the other subjects were good.

In athletics inter-class football and volleyball competitions were held after the summer holidays and created a great deal of interest.

Swimming parties went out regularly during the summer months and about 40 non-swimmers took lessons at classes held at the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Sung On-wing had rendered valuable assistance as sportsmaster and he had been ably assisted by Mr. So Tsai-keung.

The library, continued the headmaster, now contained 200 English and 500 Chinese books and had been much used by the boys.
"In conclusion," said Mr. Edwards, "I wish to thank Mrs. de Martin for kindly coming here to-day to distribute the prizes and also all members of the staff for their support and co-operation during the year. (Cheers.)"

The prize winners were:—

THE CORONET.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

D. W. Griffith's big spectacular film, "The Birth of a Nation" will commence at the Coronet to-morrow. This is the picture that practically started the movie proper, and although it was first made some years ago, it is still considered a first-class attraction both in England and America. The period is that of the American Civil War, and many striking scenes depict the course of events in those strenuous times.

More than 7,000 Spaniards have been added to Cuba's population. Organized efforts recently have been made to bring Cuban emigrants back to Cuba. The Cuban Government has also taken steps to encourage political education in Spain is said to have aided the movement.

TO-MORROW'S INVASION.

"FRANCONIA" TOURISTS' PLANS.

To-morrow morning at seven, the "Franconia" is expected to tie up at wharf No. 5, Kowloon. As previously announced, she has on board 425 tourists who are travelling round the world under the auspices of the American Express Co.

A number of prominent American and British people are on board whilst the name of the noted Spanish writer, Don Vicente Blasco Ibanez, is also on the list of passengers. Mr. L. W. Rowland of "Punch" Magazine is on board in charge of the publicity.

Directly the ship arrives, one hundred of the tourists will leave for Canton by the Steamboat Co.'s "Kinsan" which will put on extra speed and get in at Canton at 1 p.m. This party will return to-morrow night by the "Lung-shan" which leaves at 6 p.m. Thirty others will also visit Canton, going to-morrow night by the "Heungshan" and returning by the same ship on Sunday night at the usual hours.

Itineraries have been arranged for those remaining in the Colony. Different parties will visit in turn, the Peak, Repulse Bay, the mainland and the Chinese quarter.

The "Franconia" leaves for the south at 5 p.m. on Monday.

THE STAR.

"FORBIDDEN FRUIT."

Cecil B. de Mille's gorgeous film "Forbidden Fruit" is due at the Star to-day till Saturday. It is heralded as a picture quite out of the ordinary, containing as it does so many scenes depicting society life in America's gayest cities. Agnes Ayres is the leading figure in the production, and the story, although not highly original, is handled in refreshingly novel fashion.

CENTRAL BRITISH SCHOOL

ANNUAL SPORTS MEETING.

ACCIDENT TO COMPETITOR.

Except for a regrettable accident to one of the competitors, the first annual athletic sports of the Central British School were held with entire success yesterday afternoon at the Kowloon Cricket Club's ground. The casualty was Master W. King, who, after winning the Junior High Jump, fell during an exhibition performance and apparently dislocated his right elbow. First aid was rendered by the sports officials pending the arrival of Dr. Wong, and he was later removed to hospital in the motor ambulance.

The events were keenly contested and in connection with the prizes a new scheme was introduced. No prizes were given for second and third places and to encourage the children to strive for general efficiency, a new arrangement of awarding prize to first winners only was initiated which produced very satisfactory results. The boys competed in groups representing the Nathan, Langard and May Houses, while the girls represented the Bede, St. George's and St. Dunstan's Houses.

At the end of the sports Lady Severn distributed the prizes at the club house. Before the presentation the Headmaster, Mr. G. P. Nightingale, said this was the first annual sports meeting of the Central British School. The children did not compete as individuals, but as members of different Houses, each striving for the honour of his or her particular group. The competitors all realised that on him or her depended the success of their Houses, and had shown a keen spirit of rivalry. When the question of holding the sports was discussed, said Mr. Nightingale, the older children suggested that no prizes be given and that sufficient reward would be yielded by the knowledge that they had done something for their Houses. It was, however, decided to give small silver cups for championship events to serve as an everlasting record of their services rendered to the Houses. Mr. Nightingale concluded by thanking all who had assisted to make the sports a success.

After giving away the prizes Lady Severn was presented with a bouquet by little Miss Wylie.

The announcement was made by the Headmaster, before the gathering dispersed, that Mr. E. Ralphs had promised the School a shield so that the achievements of the different Houses can be recorded. The following were the results:

CRICKET.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

THE R.E.'S RECORD TO DATE.

Last week's league statistics did not include a "second" division match played at Happy Valley on December 15, in which the Royal Engineers defeated the H.K.C.C. 2nd XI. This was down in the fixtures, originally, as a friendly, but on the ground, it was decided to make it a league game, as one earlier in the season, had to be postponed on account of the pitch.

Including this game, the junior league leaders have played off eleven of their sixteen fixtures and their position is highly satisfactory in view of the fact that they have practically the same team as last season. This year they have not had the services of Lieut. Hammond and Captain Wahl. After playing in six matches, Sergeant Redpath has gone home. He was not called upon to do very much bowling last season, but made two or three big league scores, although inconsistent. His all-round improvement this season, has meant a lot to the Sappers. Two players who have rendered yeoman service to the team this season are Major Gandy, who has the biggest aggregate in the division, and Q.M.S. Jacob, who tops the bowling averages with the second highest number of wickets although he has only played in seven matches. Sergeant Cockell, who arrived towards the end of last season, has fallen off in recent matches, after doing well with both bat and ball, and Captain Chippindall has also strengthened the batting. Redpath's going home has meant a good deal although Jacob has more than made up for his absence from the attack. The batting, however, is not all that could be wished for. The tail has seldom "wagged" when called upon for an effort, but there is one relieving feature which is the improvement shown in the last three matches by C. S. M. Smith, S. S. Brown and Q. M. S. Ramsey.

As to their record in detail, one finds that they have met all the other teams in the junior league at least once. The Chinese and University juniors have twice been beaten easily. On their own ground, the Indian 2nd XI lost by 47 runs early in the season, and at Happy Valley the Indians had slightly the better of a draw. Civil Service 2nd XI lost by 30 runs. Kowloon juniors gave the leaders a fright, getting them out for a small score but losing, in the end, by 37 runs, and the R. A. M. C. lost by a similar margin. The Club 2nd XI missed the points by only 32 runs and the Navy second team won by 22 runs. From this it will be seen that only the two weaker teams allowed the Sappers to pile on runs with ease whereas the other losers did fairly well against the leaders.

The biggest score made by the Engineers this season is 182 in their first match at Sookumpoo after the Indians had scored 135. They made 164 for 3 wickets and 149 all out against the "Varsity" and 170 for 3 in the return match with the Chinese but on all these occasions, most of the runs were not required. Coming further down the list, they made 144 against the Civil Service, 121 for 7 against the C. R. C. and 100 against the H.K.C.C. 2nd XI. On the military ground the Indian juniors knocked up the biggest score against the leaders, 179 for 8 and the Sappers replied with 120 for 6. On other occasions when they batted first, they only knocked up 95 against the "Medicines," 70 against the Navy and 69 against Kowloon. The only other three-figure score against the Engineers was made by the Indians in their first match. From this it will be seen that the attack has done exceedingly well, but the batting has sometimes given cause for alarm. As the Navy 2nd XI, who have won all their engagements to date are also strong in bowling, there is every chance of their running the Sappers closely for the championship of the division. The senior service has, however, to play eleven more fixtures and there may be a time when their best team is not available.

There were no surprises in the five matches played last Saturday, the best one of which was the one in which Kowloon seconds lost to the Indians after what promised to be a good fight. The winners declared with five wickets down for 153, and when Kowloon had their same number of wickets down, the 100 had been sent up. It seemed that they might beat their visitors' score in a race against time but the latter batsmen fell badly.

Below will be found the league statistics to date. If naval or military fixtures have been omitted, it shall be obliged if the respective secretaries or skippers will let me have the missing results.
A. A. Rumpah has passed G. R. More's aggregate although he has lost second position in the senior batting list. Pomfret (Navy) drops out of the junior bowling averages as he has not played in half his team's engagements but his name appears in the senior list as he bowled in two of the first division matches. Players who figure in both divisions have separate records.

WORLD THEATRE.

HEART SECRETS.

What is written in your heart? What are the promises and possibilities shown in your left hand? What is the will of your right? Leah Baird shows "The Heart Line" of Fancy Gray in the photo-dramatization of Gelema Burgess novel of the same name showing today at the World Theatre.

Events, as they happen, become as clearly inscribed on the hand as though written there with a quill pen; and as surely as coming events cast their shadows before, so surely are those shadows cast in the hand. The hand reveals what the heart conceals.

The lines of Fancy Gray's hands divulged secrets her heart would never tell. Her heart line disclosed three love affairs—two men would love her; she would love a third. And the heart line of the man she loved indicated a very interesting triangle of tangled hearts.

"The Heart Line" is an unusual love story that disclosed many secrets of palmists, clairvoyants and spiritualistic mediums. The cast in support of Miss Baird includes Jerome Patrick, Frederick Vroom, Ruth Sinclair, Mrs. Charles C. Craig, Little Ben Alexander, and others. Frederick A. Thomson directed.

ODE ON 'SIGHT'.

"The eye alone can speak Unfettered, tell us all They're windows of the soul
And to see is to believe"

From truth these dictions over-run,
These random words unfurling jest;
The sun we see moves East to West,
Yet earth revolves and not the sun

To human eye the star-compeers
Seem illimitable at night,
Yet there appear before our sight,
Nearly five thousand in their spheres

Our eyes delight in tinsel-gilt;
Capricious men would seek renown;
But 'Sight' omit the fortune's frown,
Behind each past event God stilled

The worthless frame of womanhood
That outer semblance 'Sight' so prize,
Turbid ashen though it smiles and sighs;
Then what is left intact (that's good?)

But let us have the priceless picture
From which the frame some day must wrench;
The 'lover on a mother's bench'
Virtue on a maiden's feature.

CHINESE "CHOP" QUERY

WAS IT BINDING?

AN IMPORTANT RULING.

An important judgment concerning the validity of Chinese firm "chops" was delivered by the Peking Judge (Mr. Justice Gompertz) in the Shumway Court today. The parties in the case were Chau Shan-nam (plaintiff) and the Wing Cheong Lung firm of paper merchants (defendants).

His Honour had been asked to give a ruling on an agreed statement of facts.

Mr. Justice Gompertz said:—

"The plaintiff claims $1,000 on a promissory note bearing the chop of the defendant firm. The firm consists of two partners—one dominant and the other exercising slight supervision only. Wu Ching-lan, a shareholder but not a partner, was the manager and did the buying and selling and with the fullest powers carried on the business. In March, 1922, the plaintiff advanced $1,000 to Wu, who stated it to be for the use of the firm. The money was paid on the firm's premises and a promissory note bearing the ordinary and regular chop of the firm was affixed by Wu. The money was not in fact applied to the purposes of the firm but was retained by Wu for his own use. The partners had no knowledge of the transaction. There is no evidence that the firm has ever borrowed money. I have to decide whether the firm is liable."

"The question is partly one of agency. In English law it is well settled that the manager of a business has no implied authority to borrow money. It is pointed out that borrowing money of paper merchants but it is common knowledge on the other hand that Chinese firms very frequently raise money by loan for the purposes of the business. To my mind, the whole question of liability turns on the matter of the chop. Wu was the manager, having practically the entire conduct of the business. He was entrusted with the general chop which, I think, by local custom, confers very wide and general powers upon the holder."

"In my opinion," concluded His Honour, "the firm had held out Wu as their general agent for all reasonable business purposes, which would include the raising of money by loan, and I think therefore they are estopped from denying his authority to borrow. There must be judgment for the plaintiff with costs."

At the hearing Mr. Jayman appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. C. A. S. Russ for the defence.

THEATRE STARS.

TWO SWORDS.

Two stars in the Cantonese theatrical world were the defendants before Mr. C. D. Melbourne this morning on a charge of possession of two nickel-plated swords.

One of them is the most popular matinee idol of Hongkong audiences, having distinct womanish features. He is the leading "lady" in the troupe now performing at the Tai Ping theatre, being known by the stage name of Sun Ding Hing Yew and he claimed the ownership. He had taken the weapons to the Nanking boarding house to obtain tuition in a spectacular Northern sword display from another star who goes by the stage name of Sai Gey, and who takes the refined role of a scholar. It appears that Senior Revenue Officer Watt happened to go to the same place where master and pupil were wrestling the swords before an admiring audience.

His Worship recorded a conviction but in view of the circumstances, did not impose a fine; the actors were ordered to sign a personal bond of $100 for six months.

COMMERCIAL NOTES.

TRADE QUOTATIONS.

Additional charges of assaulting one of the "fates" were not proved. Evidence was given and the coolies admitted that ten cents had been paid for each vehicle.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

BIG SPECTACLE AT THE CORONET.

The "Birth of a Nation," which was the first of D. W. Griffith's big productions, comes to the Coronet to-day for its first showing in Hongkong.

The picture has by this time become so famous that little information is needed by the general public. It is one of those entertainments that everybody will go to see, without needing persuasion.

The period is that of America between 1860 and 1870, and the cast includes Lillian Gish and Henry B. Walthall, in the parts that made their reputation when the film was first produced some years ago.

"The Birth of a Nation" is said to be the only picture made in the comparatively early days of the modern film, that compares with the present day productions.

SECOND NEW CONTEST.

FREE $50 PRIZE.

CORONET THEATRE'S OFFER. POPULAR MOVIE STARS.

CHOOSE YOUR OWN MOVIE FILMS!

This week's voting contest follows the new lines laid down last week. Competitors vote for the twelve best liked movie stars. They do not select from any given list, nor do they limit their choice to pictures shown in Hongkong. With $50 waiting to be won, this is exciting enough; but the contest again has extra interest because the management of the Coronet Theatre, who are offering the prize again this week, announce that they will follow the voting in securing new pictures. Some one must win the $50!—Why not you?

RULES FOR THE NEW CONTEST.

This week's contest is entirely different from the ones that have gone before. The new rules are as follows:—

Cut out the coupon given below. Fill in the TWELVE best liked movie stars, male or female. Send the coupon to the China Mail office marked "Vote." You may send in as many coupons as you like. Coupons must reach the China Mail office by Monday next. Any coupons received by the China Mail later than Monday will be disqualified.

The result will be announced in the China Mail on Wednesday next week. Members of the China Mail staff and employees of the Coronet Theatre are debarred from entering the contest.

The decision of the Editor upon any points which may arise shall be final.

REACHING THE VERDICT.

Gloria Swanson

In a darkened room in a New York City hotel Gloria Swanson, screen star, is cut off from the light of day by two cold and clammy cabbage leaves. On top of the cabbage leaves repose three slices of bacon. Superimposed on the bacon is an ice-pack. For Gloria Swanson has Klieg eyes, a malignant, painful inflammation resulting from the brilliant lights used in the moving picture studio sets. "If I only had a bunch of carrots and a string of onions to hang around my neck I'd be a complete New England boiled dinner," she declared. She will be confined for some time.

Crefeld Rioting

The civil strife in the Rhineland section of Germany has taken on the appearance of a carefully prepared plan of battle between the loyal followers of the German Reich and the Separatists, who would quit Germany and set up an independent State. Desperate fighting has put down the Separatist movement for the time being. Separatists are shown here barricaded before the Town Hall at Crefeld, from which they were driven, with loss of life.

Hershey Mansion

The mansion pictured here is the palatial home of Milton S. Hershey, "Chocolate King," of Hershey, Pa. Mr. Hershey has given his entire personal fortune of $50,000,000 to the Orphans' Industrial School he founded near his home. After Mr. Hershey's death the mansion, too, will form part of the school.

Crefeld Rioting

This photograph, taken at the imminent peril of the photographer's life, was snapped when police opened fire on the Separatists who had attacked the Crefeld Town Hall in their effort to overthrow the forces of the Reich and set up a new State in the Palatinate. Two men are shown down, wounded. Life apparently means little to these desperate Germans, for they seem to be laughing at their own danger.

Herr Richter

Herr Richter, President of the Berlin Police force, is said to be the hardest-worked man in Germany. His clever handling of the difficult situations that have arisen there lately have won him great praise.

Ex-Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm, fresh from his five years' exile in Holland, has reentered Germany as a private citizen and taken up his abode at this castle at Oels, in Silesia.

Billy Tichenor

"Billy" Tichenor, a professional dancer, 19 years old, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church appeared before the Board of Bishops of the Church, consisting of representatives from all over the world, in session in Brooklyn, N. Y., and made a plea for the lifting of the amusement ban. This ban also includes thestragology, card playing and picture shows. The Bishops promised to place the plea before the General Conference of the Church, which meets in May, 1924, at Springfield, Mass.

General Count Gerhard von Kanitz

General Count Gerhard von Kanitz is the new German Minister of Food and Agriculture, and as such he faces an almost impossible task in trying to feed the German people.

Joseph Linden Smith

Joseph Linden Smith, Boston artist, was making copies of the painting on the wall of the tomb of Ramesses II, in the Valley of the Kings, Egypt, for the Boston Art Museum, when the ceiling collapsed. A huge boulder, weighing a ton, grazed Smith's head and crashed at his feet. The tomb has been closed for repairs.

William G. McAdoo

Through his campaign manager, David L. Rockwell, of Ravenscroft, O., William Gibbs McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of his father-in-law, ex-President Woodrow Wilson, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency this year.

Dorner Law Funeral

The funeral cortege of the former British Prime Minister, Andrew Bonar Law, is shown proceeding slowly along Victoria street, London, on the way to Westminster Abbey, where the ashes of the great statesman were laid to rest near the bier of the Unknown Soldier. The Prince of Wales may be seen directly behind the flag-covered coffin, while to the left is Herbert H. Asquith, former Prime Minister, and to the right is Lord Balfour.

Admiral's Rifle Cup

This international rifle cup was won by the American marines and sailors at Camp Perry, Ohio, and has been placed on exhibition in the Navy Department, Washington. General Lejeune, commander of the Marine Corps, and Admiral Eberle, U. S. N., are looking it over.

SEPARATIST PREMIER ASSASSINATED.

PARIS, January 9.
Herr Heintz, president of the Separatist Government in the Bavarian Palatinate, was assassinated yesterday while dining at a restaurant at Speyer.

LONDON, January 9.
An eye-witness of the assassination of Herr Heintz, in the dining hall of the chief hotel at Speyer, says: "A number of shots suddenly rang out. Three persons who were sitting at a table opposite me fell to the ground, shot through the head. There was a cry 'Stand against the wall, hands up!' The crowded room was thrown into confusion. A woman burst out crying as several more shots were fired. Three or four young men rushed from the room threatening to shoot anyone leaving within a quarter of an hour, adding, 'We are only attacking Separatists.' The lights had been extinguished and when they were turned on three men lay in pools of blood. Heintz and another died in a few moments. It is stated that only Heintz belonged to the Separatist Government. The others sat at his table by chance.

Troops and police soon arrived, but no arrests have been made up to the present.

Three other wounded men were found outside the hotel. The assassination of Herr Heintz was presumably by Nationalists, and draws fresh attention to the Separatist doings in the Palatinate, which are the subject of serious preoccupation in British official circles.

The Separatist flag still flies on many town halls in other parts of occupied Germany, but apparently it is only in the Palatinate that anything like a serious central Separatist administration has been established under the title "Government of the Autonomous Palatinate."

While the Separatists are the de facto governing authority in every Palatinate town, it is reported that the action of the Rhineland High Commission in accepting orders issued by the Separatist Palatinate administration is interpreted as practically official recognition.

It is stated that British demarches have now led to the decision to institute an inquiry on the spot by delegates of the Inter-Allied Commission.

As a result of British representations on the subject of the Separatist movement, it is announced that an inquiry will be made on the spot by the Rhineland High Commission.

LATER.—
In connection with the shooting of Heintz, there were collisions last night between the Separatists and the populace, which resulted in five persons being killed.

CHINESE INDUSTRIAL MISSION.

LONDON, January 9.
Mr. Chao Hsin-chu, president at a dinner at the Chinese Legation in honour of members of the Industrial Mission, said he hoped the visit of the mission would advance Anglo-Chinese trade and co-operation. He looked forward to seeing a similar mission from Great Britain visiting China.

The guests included representatives of the Department of Overseas Trade, London Chamber of Commerce and leading industrial firms.

LONDON, January 9.
The High Commissioner expressed gratitude to Great Britain, and said he hoped for everlasting Anglo-Chinese friendship.

Sir William Clark said that the Department of Overseas Trade was glad to co-operate with the mission. Sir John Jordan said that Anglo-Chinese history was one of the finest in the world for honesty. He had great hopes for China. It was necessary to stabilize the situation, but the economic position would influence the political situation.

The chief item of the mission's programme to-day was an important conference with the Comptroller-General, Sir William H. Clark, at the Department of Overseas Trade. The morning was spent in inspecting road making and factories. Afterwards a private lunch was given by the British Industrial Federation.

The tide-table given below has been compiled at the National Almanac Office in London from the records of the Admiralty of observations taken by the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard during the years 1890-1923.

The zero of the tide corresponds with the zero of the sounding in the Admiralty Chart, which has been found to be 4 feet 10 inches below mean low-water.

To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 4 feet 10 inches, and on the Admiralty Chart add 4 feet 10 inches, and on the Admiralty Chart add 4 feet 10 inches.
